Dear BAM Friend,

It is a pleasure to invite you to the 2008Spring PaduaMuscleDays, that will be held next April 13-15, 2008 in Terme Euganee and Padua. This cirMYO Initiative would increase visibility of the Padua Myology School, a heritage of the late lamented Prof. Massimiliano Aloisi, that will be honored during the Meeting Openings to be held in the Aula Magna of the University of Padua Monday April 14, 2008.

The PaduaMuscleDays provides Seminars to the Padua Muscle Community and its guests in the relaxing environment of Terme Euganee. Hoping that you may accept invitation, please send me at your earlier convenience, but anyhow before March 15, 2008, a 250-word Summary of your presentation.

Please, join us next April 13, 2008 at Hotel AUGUSTUS in Terme Euganee/Montegrotto (Padua) for the Workshop: Translational Myology. Monday April 14, 2008 will be spent in the University of Padua Palazzo Bo, having the Sessions in the Aula Magna, to allow new friends to visit the historical Anatomical Theater. At the end of the day new visitors of Padua will have the opportunity to visit the Scrovegni Chapel, with its exceptionally well preserved Giotto's frescos, an impressive cycle that opened the Renaissance Paintings in Italy.

I am very sorry to say that due to Italian bad financing of the University System it will be very difficult that we may support even outstanding speakers. On the other hands, we offer an all-inclusive-package of € 350 (threehundred and fifty Euros) for Registration and Accommodation (Three days Full Board in a four Star Hotel in Terme Euganee).

In case of positive decision, please go to the link:
